Genoa Marriage Brokers, In Genoa there are regular marriage

brokers, who have pockerbooks filled with the names of marriageable girls of the different classes, with notes of their figures, personal attractions, fortune and other circumstances. These brokers go about endeavoring to arrange connections in the same offhand mercantile manner which they would bring to bear upon a merchandise transaction, and when they succeed they get a commission of 3 or 3 per cent upon the portion, with such extras or bonuses as may be voluntarily bestowed by the party. Marriage at Genoa is thus oftentimes simply a matter of business calculation, generally settled by the parents or relations, who often draw up the contract before the parties have seen one another, and it is only when everything else is arranged and a few days previous to 600-1w the marriage ceremony that the future husband is introduced to his partner for life.
